

Leadership development is for you if:

- ✓ you are a current or emerging leader in your congregation
- ✓ you want to become a better leader
- ✓ you are open to challenge and changes in outlook & practice
- ✓ you are committed to growing as a Canadian UU
- ✓ you have the support of your congregation's Board

CU*UL
INSPIRING
THE FUTURE

Our Congregations succeed as Vital Centres of Liberal Religion when their leaders are supported and nurtured in their important work. Individuals who have opportunities to meet with other leaders, to learn about Leadership in a UU context and who are given practical information can make a real difference in their congregations.

Highlights

- Networking
- Congregational Leadership skills & training
- Opportunities for personal spiritual reflection
- Group Learning
- Worship

CANADIAN UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST LEADERSHIP SCHOOL 2010

McMaster University, Hamilton, ON, July 15-18, 2010

or -

University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon, July 22–25, 2010

Costs: $549 for the first participant from each congregation & $499 for subsequent registrations (it is recommended that the congregation support 50% of the cost of each registration)

CUUL School is a live-in program and the registration fee covers accommodation, meals and all program activities.

Interested in learning more? Participant subsidies are available.

Registration Brochures will soon be available in your congregation and on-line at

<http://www.cuc.ca/programs/cuul> or send questions to cuul@cuc.ca