

Imagining Youth Ministry

May 29-31 , 2009
Toronto, ON

The UUA, the US based body with responsibility to continental youth ministry, is restructuring their youth ministry structures. A change in continental structures necessitates some changes in Canadian structures. A visioning weekend, designed to help us all better understand our dreams for Youth ministry in Canada is being held in the Toronto area.

Participants will include:

- Youth currently involved at the congregational level
- Youth not involved in youth programming
- Youth advisors
- Congregational leaders
- Ministers
- Professional Religious Educators
- CAYAC members
- Young Adults
- CUC staff and Board members

During the weekend, we'll consider some fundamental questions, including:

- What works work best about our current structure?
- What will need to change in light of changes in the UUA?
- Goals for youth ministry and service?
- How best to structure to meet those goals?
- How can we encourage and support congregations in their youth ministries?

Interested?

Applications are being accepted for those who wish to be part of this weekend.

See the application form and community rules at: <http://cuc.ca/calendar.htm>

