

USC Canada presents...

Planet in Focus Film Screening: Return to Nepal

What: the World Premiere of Return to Nepal, a film showcasing USC Canada's programs in Humla, Nepal

Where: The Royal Ontario Museum,
100 Queen's Park, Toronto

When: Saturday, October 25th, 2008 at 7:00 pm

Who: The film stars musician Bruce Cockburn and USC Executive Director Susan Walsh, and is being shown at Planet in Focus, Toronto's Environmental Film Festival.

Why: To learn about and appreciate the beauty, richness, and challenges faced by this remote mountain community, nestled in the Himalayas – and to see how USC Canada is making a difference.

How: Tickets are $10 each for adults, $8 for students or seniors, and $5 for children under twelve. $2 from each ticket goes to USC Canada's development work in Humla. They can be bought by calling 416-531-4689 after October 1st.

For more information, call Kate Green at 1-800-565-6872 x228