

CLOSE ENCOUNTERS RESOURCE KIT

TERMS OF USE

The contents of this Close Encounters Resource Kit (the "Licensed Materials") are owned by the First Unitarian Congregation of Toronto and the Unitarian Congregations of Greater Toronto (jointly the "Licensors").

Permission is hereby granted to member congregations (and emerging groups) of the Canadian Unitarian Council in good standing and to the Canadian Unitarian Council ("Licensees") to utilize the Licensed Materials on a limited license basis for the purpose of creating print, on-line and promotional media containing or derived from the Licensed Materials (collectively "Media"), subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. The Licensed Materials are to be used solely in connection with matters pertaining to Unitarianism (or Universalism or Unitarian-Universalism) or the activities of the Licensee in promoting such.
2. The Licensed Materials and Media shall not be used in any context that, in the Licensor's sole opinion, may create a negative image of Unitarians or Unitarianism in Canada.
3. If a website address is to appear in any Media, then the website address "unitarian.ca" must be used and most directly associated with the Licensed Materials. Other website addresses may be used as well as, but not instead of, this address.
4. No right of ownership of the Licensed Materials by the Licensee shall be implied or construed by the Licensee's use of the Licensed Materials.

THE LICENSEE ACKNOWLEDGES THAT, IN USING THE LICENSED MATERIALS, THE LICENSEE HAS AGREED TO ABIDE BY THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

For greater certainty, the Licensee may wish to send a copy of the proposed Media to the Licensor in order to obtain written confirmation that the proposed Media is in accordance with these Terms and Conditions.

June, 2005